

Appointment Visiting Senior Lecturer in Global Affairs

Position Description

Yale-NUS College is a highly selective liberal arts and science college in Singapore. Co-founded by Yale University and the National University of Singapore, the College is committed to excellence in research and teaching within a full residential programme that integrates living and learning. Its curriculum educates students in Asian and Western intellectual traditions as well as current scientific thought.

In order to enhance the research and teaching environment of the College, we welcome senior scholars to spend one or two semesters on our campus. The visiting faculty will be actively involved in research, preferably in cognate research areas with Yale-NUS faculty research fields, and will be asked to teach one or two courses per semester of their visit. We are currently seeking a Visiting Senior Lecturer to teach two (2) courses in Semester 1 of Academic Year 2024-2025.

Candidates should have a PhD degree with an excellent track record in research related to Global Affairs. Research achievements should include publications in leading peer-reviewed journal or conference commensurate with career stage

Job Requirement

- Extensive teaching experience and passion for undergraduate education is essential.
